Neenah runners win 25th in row

NEENAH — Working on its third straight unbeaten season, the Neenah girls' cross country team ran off with the Brookfield East Invitational championship by a 47-point margin Saturday morning.

The victory was Rockets' second of the season, their 25th in a row spanning three seasons, their 20th straight invitational meet crown dating back to the 1979 campaign and their third consecutive Brookfield East meet title.

The Rockets totaled 24 points to 71 for runnerup Racine Case.

Waukesha South tallied 74, Madison West 77, Manitowoc 131, Cedarburg 137 and Kenosha Bradford 190.

First place went to the Neenah's Eileen Schaller in 11:40. Her sister, Kathy, was last year's individual winner.

Other Rocket places were Kris Burr third in 11:57, Joan Swanson fifth in 12:15, Sue Burr seventh in 12:16, Kathy Monard eighth in 12:20, Lyn Moede 25th in 13:14, Jill Camber 29th in 13:38 and Kathy Burr 41st in 12:42.

"The girls hung together well as a group. It was a hot day and they still performed well," Coach Ron Fedenko said.

The Neenah boys team finished eighth with 204 points.

The Rockets competed without veteran Erik Scribner. With Scribner in the race, Coach Tom Jensen thought his team would have finished in the top half of the field.

Menomonee Falls North garnered first place with 35 points, and its Bill Hacker was the individual winner.

Madison West took second place with 52, trailed by Racine Case 96, Cedarburg 132, Milwaukee South 138, Manitowoc and Waukesha South 169, Neenah 204, Kenosha Bradford 217 and Milwaukee Thomas More 225.

In the girls' race for non-varsity runners, Amy Garlock was second in 13:32 and Kathy Gilmore sixth in 13:41. Only five places were kept, and there were no team scores.

Other times included Jan Schaper 14:56, Ingrid Landman 14:57 and Karen Reider 16:40.

The Rockets didn't place anyone among the top five non-varsity boys' race finishers.

Times included Rob Wilson 18:46, Darin Schoening 20:41, Jeff Enz 21:03 and 22:10.

The Neenah teams will compete in the Shawano Invitational next Saturday morning.

Schaller leads Neenah

BROOKFIELD — Eileen Schaller's first place finish helped Neenah score 24 points in winning its 26th straight meet Saturday, at the Brookfield East Invitational, while Racine Case took second with 71 points.

"They know people expect them to do well, and their hard training this summer showed under the hot conditions," said Neenah girls' Coach Ron Fedenko. Amy Garlock took second and Cathy Gilmore sixth in the non-varsity race, while Jan Schaper, Ingrid Landman and Karen Reiden also finished.

The Neenah boys took eighth with 204 points behind defending state champion, Menomonee Falls North (35).
