Neenah takes 4-way cross country test

NEENAH — The Neenah boys' and girls' cross country teams both finished first in Fox Valley Association quadrangulars at Memorial Park Tuesday afternoon.

The Rocket girls rebounded from their first loss in three seasons (at Kettle Moraine last Saturday) by starting a new winning streak with 19 points.

Appleton West was second with 64 and Oshkosh West third with 75. Oshkosh North didn't field a complete team.

The Neenah boys scored 44 points to edge Oshkosh West by three. Appleton West tallied 56 and Oshkosh North 63.

Eileen Schaller won the girls' race in 11:35, finishing six seconds ahead of North's Meghan McCarthy. Schaller led the entire race.

The Rockets' Kris Burr was third in 11:50, Kathy Monard fourth in 11:59, Sue Burr fifth in 12:14, Joan Swanson sixth in 12:26, Amy Garlock seventh in 12:47 and Jill Camber eight in 12:58.

Appleton West's Brett Burt took the boys' race in 16:10.

Neenah's Tom Schaper was second in 16:47, Oshkosh West's Tom Harron third in 17:01, the Rockets' Eric Oakley fourth in 17:05 and Erik Scribner fifth in 17:17.

Other Neenah places were Jim Lamb 16th, Scott Meulemans 17th, Rob Wilson 24th and Bill Hammett 25th.

"It was a big win for the boys after running against Milwaukee and other big schools," Coach Tom Jensen pointed out.

He added that it was a nice win because Oshkosh West is the team to beat in the conference.

Girls' Coach Ron Fedenko noted that all of his runners bettered their previous competitive times on the Neenah course by from 20 to 25 seconds.

The jayvee girls ran with the varsity and, overall, the Rockets' Kathy Gilmore was 10th in 13:06, Kathy Burr 24th in 13:32, Jan Schaper 21st in 14:28 and Karen Reiden 22nd in 14:59.

Oshkosh West won the jayvee boys' race with 33 points. The Rockets scored 35 and Appleton West 59.

Tony VandenHeuvel of Appleton West was the winner in 18:26.

Neenah's Alex Collins was second, Brian LeGault third, Jeff Wheeler seventh, Mike Halverson ninth, Alex Scribner 14th and Jeff Enz 22nd.

The Neenah teams will compete in the Grafton Invitational Saturday.

Rockets run to wins

NEENAH — For the Neenah boys' cross country team it was a big win, while the Rocket girls began a new string of victories Tuesday in a quadrangular meet at Memorial Park.

The Neenah boys nipped Oshkosh West, 44-47, while Appleton West finished third with 56 points. Oshkosh North had no score due to having only four runners — the same was true for their girls' and jayvee teams.

"This was an important victory," said Neenah Coach Tom Jensen. "We've been running in some very tough meets in the Milwaukee area. Also, Oshkosh West was picked to win the conference title and this was morale boost for us."

Tom Schaper paced Neenah as he finished second overall to Appleton West's Brett Burt. Eric Oakley and Erik Scribner were fourth and fifth while Jim Lamb took 16th and Scott Meulemans was 17th. Rob Wilson and Bill Hammett were 24th and 25th respectively.

Oshkosh West finished with three runners in the top 10: Tom Harron third, Steve Kubeny sixth and Shannon Voss eighth, while Fred Hintz was 11th and Paul Smith 19th. Also finishing were Eric Niendorf 22nd and Troy Durkee 26th.

After having their dual and invitational win record snapped at 28 in a row by Stevens Point Saturday at the Laser Invitational, the Neenah girls began another string. The Rockets had 19 points to 64 for Appleton West and 75 for Oshkosh West.

"I hated to see the string end for them," said Neenah Coach Ron Fedenko, whose team lost by nine seconds (combined time) in the Laser meet. "We found out we can run with Stevens Point. It was a confidence builder, and I think it showed in the relaxed way we ran today."

Eileen Schaller again paced the Rockets as she finished first, six seconds ahead of Oshkosh North's Meghan McCarthy. Kris Burr was third, Kathy Monard fourth, Sue Burr fifth and Joan Swanson sixth rounded out the scoring for Neenah. Amy Garlock was seventh and Jill Camber eighth.

Following McCarthy for North were Deanna Miller 18th, Rhonda Bienderra 19th and Terry Lutzkee 21st. Beth Weiland, North's No. 2, runner was out due to an injury.

"Meghan (McCarthy) ran a strong and a smart race. She stayed with her (Schaller), and I think that shows Meghan is one of the better runners in the state" said North Coach Ron Swanson.

Cherste Johnson and Kim Sosnoski topped Oshkosh West as they placed 10th and 11th respectively. Jody Drake was 15th, Julie Akin 17th and Cindy Krebs 22nd. Sue Weyenberg was 23rd.

Oshkosh West won the jayvee meet with 33 points while Neenah had 35 and Appleton West 59. Todd Kile, Tom Finger, Jim Stenz, Kurt Bowen and Keith Krystek were Oshkosh West's top runners.
