Cross Country

Neenah still undefeated

WAUWAUTOSA — The undefeated Neenah girls' cross country team experienced its closest call of the season but edged Waukesha South 103-104 for the championship of the Wauwautosa East Invitational Saturday.

It was the Rockets' third invitational victory of the season and their fourth triumph overall.

First place, for the second weekend, went to Neenah's Kathy Monard. She bested Claire Eichner of Wauwautosa East by :16.

Eileen Schaller, who won Neenah's first two meets, did not compete because of a foot injury.

Milwaukee Marquette captured the boys division. Neenah finished 15th.

Neenah runners place 1st in meet

KETTLE MORAINE — The Neenah girls' cross country took first place in the Kettle Moraine Invitational held Saturday at Naga-Waukeez Park.

Neenah captured top honors in Division I of the four division meet, which featured most of the top-ranked teams in the state, and the Rockets did it with their top returning runner, Eileen Schaller, out with an injury.

Coach Ron Fedenko's girls had a composite time of 62:40, edging Stevens Point by two seconds for first place.

Point's Susie Favor was first in 11:11, but Neenah's Kathy Monard was second.

Neenah's boys squad did not fare as well. The Rockets finished last in the nine-team Division I race.
