Jones, Bubolz head FVA cross country

Conference champions Steve Jones of Appleton East and Appleton West's Kristen Bubolz head the all-Fox Valley Association cross country teams, chosen by the coaches.

The girls' team also includes Jenny Owens, Kayann Monard and Amy Garlock, Neenah; Linnea Dahl, Oshkosh North; Lisa Bauman, Britt Garton and Jenny Alby, Appleton East; Kim Last, Oshkosh West; Lori Jacob, Appleton West; Carrie Dusenberry and Michelle Hoffman, Kaukauna, and Jenni Siehr, Menasha.

Owens and Garlock were honored for the third year; Monard, Dahl, Bauman, Last and Alby for the second.

Receiving honorable mention were Kaley Kocher, Appleton West; Nancy Gritt, Cathy Hinkens and Cindy Gertz, Kaukauna; Lori Jesse and Cheryl MacPhetridge, Neenah, and Beth Binder, Oshkosh West.

Bauman, Jacob, Garlock, Hinkens and Jesse are the only seniors in the group. Owens, Last, Dusenberry, Alby, Siehr, Kocher, Gritt, Gertz and Binder are juniors; Bubolz, Monard, Dahl and MacPhetridge, sophomores, and Garton and Hoffman, freshmen.

Neenah's Ron Fedenko, whose Rockets won the conference championship, was selected coach of the year.

Joining Jones on the boys' squad are teammates Jeff Glasheen, Dan Karras, Paul Dodd and Art Fischer; Jeff Reeve, Neenah; Joe Pahlow, Oshkosh West; Mike Misterek and Joe Knox Oshkosh North, and Shawn Doerfler, Kimberly.

Jones was chosen for the third straight year and Karras and Pahlow for the second.

Honorable mention was accorded Doug Senso and Brian VandenHeuvel, Kaukauna; Scott Kloiber, Appleton East; Liam Collins, Appleton West, and Marc Moore and Ron Bennett, Oshkosh North.

Joe Perez, coach of the champion Patriots, was voted coach of the year.

All of the honorees are seniors except Glasheen, Fischer, Reeve, Misterek, Doerfler, VandenHeuvel, Collins and Moore, who are juniors, and Knox, a sophomore.

FVA cross country

Neenah, East run to victory

By DOUG ZELLMER
of the Northwestern

KAUKAUNA — Neenah's girls and Appleton East's boys ran away with Fox Valley Association cross country titles Thursday at Countryside Golf Club.

The Rockets won the girls' meet with 49 points while runnerup Appleton West had 68. Fifth was Oshkosh West with 122. Oshkosh North was sixth with 128 points.

East took the first three places in the boys' meet and finished with 22 points, while Oshkosh North was a distant second with 70 points. Oshkosh West was seventh with 169.

East's Steve Jones was first in the boys' three-mile run in 16 minutes, 47 seconds. Neenah's Jeff Reeve was fourth in 17:07 and Oshkosh West's Joe Pahlow was sixth in 17:18. North had two runners in the top 10 with Mike Misterek eighth in 17:21 and Joe Knox 10th in 17:23.

Neenah's Jenny Owens finished second in the girls' two-mile run with a time of 12:23, while teammate Kay Monard was third in 12:24. First place for the girls went to Appleton West's Kristen Bubolz in 11:57. North's Linnea Dahl was fourth in 12:32 and West's Kim Last seventh in 12:55.

The meet was a soggy run for competitors. Many complained of mud and standing water due to a deluge of rain in September.

Pahlow, one of the pre-race favorites, was a bit disappointed with his run. He had the lead early and diced it with Jones for about one-half the race, but then faltered.

"I went out too fast," said Pahlow. "I tried to stay with Jones hoping he would tire, but I fell back. I was hoping for at least second place."

Kimberly runner Shawn Doerfler edged Pahlow at the finish and couldn't have been happier.

"He (Pahlow) was the guy I was shooting for," said Doerfler. "Beating Pahlow is something I've worked on all year. I wanted to beat him because he beat me at Wautoma."

West Coach Russ Hoxtell said Pahlow ran a good race, but should have placed higher.

"Kurt Bowen (who finished 24th) ran very well," said Hoxtell. "I'm happy with Pahlow and Bowen."

North's Misterek, a junior, said he did run his best time, but added he was more concerned about his team.

"We should have won, but I'm still happy with second," he said. "As an individual, I was hoping for the top three. Some unexpected runners from Appleton East really came up (in the standings). There was standing water by all of the flags."

North Coach Chuck Reigel was disappointed with second. The Spartans were one of the pre-race favorites to win the team title.

"But our boys did run well. I'm pleased with our kids," said Reigel. "We would have liked first, but Appleton East ran extremely well. East took it to us. We might have run better on a drier field. We had a couple of kids who got wiped out."

Neenah's Reeve was all smiles after the race.

"I'm pretty pleased. I was hoping to finish in the top five," said Reeve. "It was pretty wet. I slipped and fell once and lost a couple of seconds, but I didn't lose my place. I knew Appleton East was one of the favorites, but I didn't think they would finish one, two and three."

For the Rockets' Owens, Thursday's race was her first ever against Bubolz.

Neenah girls' Coach Ron Fedenko said his Rocket team ran an excellent race.

North's Dahl was gunning for a spot in the top five runners. She wasn't disappointed.

"I ran the best race I could," said Dahl. "The course was really sloppy. I just slid a little, but I wore spikes."

Reigel said he was "really" happy for Dahl, but said his girls' team did not run well overall.

West's Last, who is called a runner who never quits by Hoxtell, was happy with her placing.

"I was glad to be in the top 10," said Last, a junior. "I just kept going."

Hoxtell said he felt Last could be a strong contender at the finish.

"We felt she (Last) would be there," said Hoxtell. "She beat a lot of girls today she hadn't beaten all year."

In the girls' jayvee match, West won with 42 points, while North had 90. Appleton East won the boys' jayvee run with 26 points. North had 90 and West 122.

Neenah's Carolyn Heinen was first in the girls' jayvee run, with teammate Cate Pichon second. West's Amy Leiby and Lindsey Lehman finished third and fourth, respectively.

For the jayvee boys, North's Tom McConnell was second and West's Jack Clark was fifth.

Favorites showcased in FVA cross country

By Gary Shriver

Of The Post-Crescent

KAUKAUNA — Tuesday afternoon's Fox Valley Association cross country championships at Countryside Golf Club mainly provided a showcase for the favorites.

Steve Jones, Jeff Glasheen and Dan Karras swept the first three places to pace Appleton East to its fourth consecutive boys' title. Meanwhile, Appleton West's Kristen Bubolz made a shambles of the girls' competition, finishing 26 seconds ahead of second place Jenny Owens of Neenah.

About the only drama during the afternoon was provided in the final race of the day where the Neenah girls, led by Owens and third-place finisher Kay Monard, defeated Appleton West and Kaukauna for the team title.

Going in, Coach Joe Perez of Appleton East figured that the boys' meet would be a two-way battle between the Patriots and Oshkosh North, and that his chances of winning would depend on placing a couple of his runners, besides Jones, near the top. But the Patriot runners exceeded even Perez' fondest hopes. In addition to the first three places, East also received a seventh from Paul Dodd and a ninth from Art Fischer to finish with 22 points to 70 for North.

"This was the best race for us this season by far," said Perez. "I don't know how we could have done much better. We went into the race with everyone just shooting for the yellow jerseys (Oshkosh North) and everyone came through. They showed that they really wanted to run today. Jeff (Glasheen) and Dan (Karras) have really improved. Earlier they were a minute-and-a-half behind Jones, but today they both were within 12 seconds of him. I think we can run with anyone. I'm not saying that we'll beat all the good teams, but we can run with them."

Jones, who finished third in last season's FVA competition, ran from the front of the pack for most of the 5,000-meter course under muddy and cold conditions.

"I wanted to get out fast and make them (Oshkosh North) run with me and maybe tire them out. North beat us in a run last week and we all knew where the competition was coming from. It was a little slippery out there, but the wind wasn't bad, and that helped a lot."

Owens ran with Bubolz during the first quarter of the girls' race, but then the Appleton West sophomore, who hasn't lost a cross country race since eighth grade, steadily pulled away.

"I felt really good today. Actually, I felt so good that I thought my time (11:57) would be a little better," said Bubolz. I ran as fast as I could, but she (Owens) stayed with me longer than anyone has in my races this year."

"I was anxious to run against her (Bubolz) because she's good," said Owens. "She just got too far ahead and I couldn't catch her. But I'm satisfied with the race I ran so I don't feel bad at all."

The efforts of Owens, Monard, Lori Jesse in 12th place, Cheryl Macphetridge in 14th and Renee Johnson in 18th were enough to give the Rockets the team title after a year's absence.

"We mostly have the same team back from last year that lost to Kaukauna by one point," said Neenah Coach Ron Fedenko. "Last Tuesday out here we were buried by Appleton West and Kaukauna but we turned it around today. Actually, we haven't been running well lately because of illness and injuries. We had been struggling until today."

Cross country teams enter Fondy sectional

NEENAH-MENASHA — The Neenah and Menasha boys' and girls' cross country teams will bid for state meet berths through the WIAA Class A sectional at Fond du Lac's Ledge-wood Country Club Saturday morning.

The boys' race will begin at 10:30 a.m. and the girls will compete at 11:20.

Also in the field are Beaver Dam, Fond du Lac, Kaukauna, Kimberly, Manitowoc, Oshkosh North and West, Plymouth, Sheboygan North and South, Two Rivers, Waupun and West Bend East and West.

The first and second place teams and top six individuals will advance from the sectional to the state meet at Madison Nov. 1.

The Twin City schools didn't qualify anyone for the state meet last fall.

The Neenah girls move into the sectional after regaining the Fox Valley Association championship last week. They had won six straight before surrendering it to Kaukauna last fall.

The Neenah boys finished third, behind Appleton East and Oshkosh North. The Menasha boys and girls both were last.

The Rocket girls may be hard pressed to follow up their conference victory with a sectional berth because of the strong competition.

Beaver Dam finished a strong first and Waupun was second in the Little Ten Conference meet, while Two Rivers easily won the Eastern Wisconsin Conference title. Fond du Lac was second and Manitowoc fourth in the Fox River Valley Conference meet.

On the boys' side, favored Manitowoc only finished third in the FRVC meet but the first two finishers, Sheboygan North and Fond du Lac, both are in the sectional.

West Bend East finished second to Wisconsin Lutheran in the Little Ten meet. Two Rivers had its string of EWC championships ended at seven when it placed fifth behind four Class B schools.

The Rockets' Jenny Owens and Kayann Monard, second and third, respectively, in the conference meet, are among the leading individual performers. Others include Trina Taddy, Two Rivers, EWC champion; Gwen Helbing, Beaver Dam, Little Ten champion; Waupun's Lora Niemeier and Karen Laufenberg, second and third, in the latter meet; Linnea Dahl, Oshkosh North, and Fond du Lac's Erica Larson, third behind two Preble runners in the FRVC.

With Appleton East and West competing in another sectional, Neenah's Jeff Reeve, fourth in the FVA, is the leading finisher in the sectional.

Other top runners are Ken Mauk and Greg Schmidt, Sheboygan North; Joel Jaeger, Fond du Lac; Tim Schultz, Plymouth, and Greg Ritzenthaler and Tom DeGroot, West Bend East.

St. Mary Central will participate in the Fox Valley Christian Conference meet at Appleton's Pierce Park Friday afternoon.

State spots go to Owens, Monard

FOND DU LAC — Jenny Owens and Kay Monard of Neenah finished fourth and fifth, respectively, in the Fond du Lac Class A Sectional to earn berths in next week's WIAA state cross country meet.

Owens was clocked in 12 minutes, 21 seconds and Monard was a second behind at 12:22. Fond du Lac's Erica Larson won the meet in 12:01. Beaver Dam and Waupun grabbed first and second, respectively, in team competition.

The top two teams and top six individuals qualify for the state meet.

Oshkosh North's Linnea Dahl just missed reaching state by clocking 12:27 to finish one second behind sixth-place finisher Karen Laufenberg of Waupun.

Class A Sectional

Manitowoc won the boys' title with Fond du Lac finishing second. West Bend East's Greg Ritzenthaler clocked 16:25 to win the individual crown. Oshkosh North's Mike Misterek was the top area finisher, placing 13th.

In Class B action at Fond du Lac, Ripon edged Berlin for the boys' team title and Ripon ran past Slinger for the girls' team championship.

Markesan's Ron Prochnow placed first in 16:28. Berlin's Scott Drum and Ron Cutts qualified for state with second- and sixth-place finishes and New Holstein's Daren Mayer also advanced, taking fifth. Ripon's Greg Banach and Mark Jorgenson had to settle for seventh and ninth, respectively.
