Neenah fields improved girls' cross country team

NEENAH — Although it's early in the season, the Neenah High School girls' cross country team shows signs of being vastly improved over the 1989 edition.

Coach Ron Fedenko's Rockets opened their season with a first place in a five-team Fox Valley Association meet and followed with a fourth in the Hodag Invitational at Rhinelander and a second in last weekend's Shawano Invitational.

They were 11th at Rhinelander and fifth at Shawano in 1989.

"We're very young. We have four freshmen in our top seven. Freshman Karen Schaper has been our best finisher in our first three meets," Fedenko said.

The Rockets didn't have any seniors on last year's team, but three letterwinners didn't return.

Renee Hamilton, named the most valuable runner on the '89 unit, and Jill Peterson are the only seniors.

Other letterwinners are junior Chandra Ulbrich and sophomores Krista Lawell and Lisa Seaborne.

Newcomers are Kerri Kraus, a junior; sophomore Becky Ciriacks and freshmen Julee Beckstrom, Christy Codner, Mysee Moua, Julie Olson and Schaper.

The Rockets are scheduled to compete in the Wauwatosa East Invitational Saturday.
