Jenny Grandone led Neenah's No. 1 cross country squad to first place in the girls open and junior varsity race at Saturday's Shawano Invitational.

Grandone won the race in 17:00 as the Rockets totaled 19 points.

Lisa Heroux placed third, Sara Brey fourth, Mandy Gunderson fifth, Heather Michalkiewicz sixth, Holly Goudreau eighth, Norel Miller 11th and Alicia Hilliker 32nd.

Tina Schraufnagel, running for the Neenah No. 2 team, was second overall, placing seven seconds behind Grandone.

Robyn Barnett placed 20th, Angela Kaphingst 21st and Sara Mulroy 50th.

Neenah's No. 1 boys team swept first place with 22 points and the No. 2 unit finished third with 73, also at Shawano.

Chris Core of the No. 1 squad took first place in 18:01, finishing four seconds ahead of teammate Ryan Waterstreet.

Mark Kerins was third, Matt Berg sixth, Ryan Hayes 10th, Eric Smiltneek 12th and Matt Pazdernik 16th.

Brian Koslowski keyed the No. 2 team with an eighth-place finish.

Jamie Michalkiewicz was ninth,
