Neenah boys win third straight FVA cross country title

THE NEWS-RECORD

NEENAH — The Neenah High School boys' varsity cross country team won its third straight Fox Valley Association championship with a solid performance Thursday at Countryside Golf Course in Kaukauna.

Neenah's No. 1 runner, senior Kaiser Behnke, finished fifth despite being slowed by an abdominal injury. The team's usual No. 2 runner, senior Matt Houston, finished 19th while being hampered by a leg injury.

"Everyone's worked hard, so I didn't want to lose it for them," Behnke said. "We haven't put together a perfect race yet,
